Those who are having a very happy time under the chaperonage of Mrs. Miller are: Misses Louise Brown, Susan Skelton, Louise Gaither, Milbrey Carruthers, Peggy Land, Marie Newcomb, Flora Mae Black, Alma Belle Black, Florence Thompson, Messrs. Millage Nall, Buck Kane, Dillon, Ripley Greer, Billy Lewis, Charles Fisher, Ernest Smythe, Tedbury Hughes, Robert Hill, Clement Bryan and others.

BOX PARTY FOR MISS HURST

A CHARMING BRIDE ELECT
Miss Mary Hurst, whose marriage to Mr. William Ashley Trenchard will be solemnized on Saturday evening, was the honoree at a box party at the Orpheum on Thursday afternoon, given by Mrs. E. F. Cohen, which was followed by a tea in her home on Autumn avenue.

For the occasion the rooms were decorated in ferns and sweet peas in pastel shades. The tea table was laden with a centerpiece of a basket of varicolored sweet peas.

The honoree was crowned in white-beaded garlands with which she wore a white hat of the same material. Mrs. Cohen also wore white garlands and a white hat.

Those who had the pleasure of being present were Miss Hurst, Miss Ida Johnson, of Prior Point, Miss Laura Reed, Mrs. Hugh Watkins, Mrs. Swayne Wilson and Mrs. Roland Hutchins.

THREE CHARMING VISITORS

HONORED WITH DANCING PARTY
Miss Hazel Jack entertained on Thursday evening with a delightful dancing party at the Alaskan roof garden in honor of Misses Ann and Mary Lawler and Geraldine Condon, of Clare, Ia., who are guests in the city.

These young ladies are members of the Holloman-Murphy family and have been in the city for the last week, and during their stay in the city have been popular with a host of friends who will regret to see them leave.

About 20 friends of the young people had the pleasure of being present.

Informal Dancing Party.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Burke will entertain their daughter, Miss Louise Burke, with an informal dancing party on Friday evening at the Casino in Overton park.

About 150 guests will have the pleasure of being present and will enjoy delicious refreshments served during the evening.

Informal Dancing Party.

Riverside park will be the scene of a delightful informal dancing party on Friday evening, when Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Black will entertain in honor of their niece, Miss Louise B. Dale, of Chicago. Delicious refreshments will be served throughout the evening to the guests, including about 150 members of the younger set.

TWO HURT IN AUTO

SPILL NEAR GREENWOOD

GREENWOOD, Miss., June 25. (Sp.)—S. L. Gwin and E. L. Mounger were both injured late Wednesday when the steering wheel of the Buick car in which they were riding refused to work properly, and the machine plunged into the river near the Pilgrimage bridge on the Alabama road, throwing them both into the water and practically demolishing the car. Both were rendered unconscious.

Mr. Gwin was the first to recover and he succeeded in getting out of the water and rescuing Mr. Mounger, who was more seriously hurt. Mr. Mounger sustained a broken rib and numerous bruises. Mr. Gwin's arm was cut by the windshield.

MADISON AT SECOND

It is the sober, industrious, thrifty young man and woman who becomes rich and contented. The dollars you place in this National Bank are investments that you are making for the future—the foundation of happiness, contentment and affluence.

Save While You Are Young

TIME is a precious element. The full importance of time in the accumulation of wealth is only understood when it is too late. The time to save is when you are young, for then you are building for the future on a solid foundation and creating habits that make for success.

If you are a young person do not let anyone laugh you out of your AMBITION to bank money and better your condition. Ten years from now if you are thrifty and your friends are spenders the laugh will be on the other side.

PLAN TO SPREAD RED DOCTRINE IN AMERICA
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Establishing of a Latin-American branch of the Third International of Moscow at Mexico city to spread Bolshevism propaganda in North and South America is reported by Execlor of Mexico City, copies of which have been received by state department officials.

According to Execlor, the Mexican revolution is the center of the Bolshevism activity on this continent and it is from there that soviet propaganda in the United States as well as in the Latin-American countries is being directed.

The Mexican police authorities, Execlor says, have begun arresting active agents of the Moscow soviet government.

YARDMEN JOIN STRIKE.
PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Twenty-four crews of Reading railway yardmen at Coatesville, near here, joined the trainmen's strike today. It is stated the Midvale and Lukens steel mills there will be seriously affected if the strike continues.

Reports from various Pennsylvania railroad points affected by the strike show little change in the situation overnight.

MARION LEGION PLANS HARDING HOME-COMING
MADISON, O., June 25.—The American Legion will take complete charge of plans for the home-coming celebration, which will be held here July 5 for Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential nominee.

Tentative arrangements call for a sham battle to be participated in by Marion county legion men at the county fairgrounds in the afternoon. In the evening a huge fireworks display will be held at the fairgrounds.

The Marion Civic association is making plans to handle the crowds that will come here for the notification ceremonies July 22. Omittee have been obtained on two Marion hotels and a house-to-house canvass is being made to find rooms for visitors.

GUNMEN ATTACK JAIL TO FREE ALLEGED YEGG
TOLEDO, O., June 25.—Five gunmen wounded Webster Slough, 65, a night watchman, and demolished the Fulton county jail at Washington, early today in an unsuccessful attempt to liberate Edward O'Neill, alias Maundy, awaiting trial for alleged participation in a $21,000 bank robbery at Toledo, O., a month ago.

Slough, with a bullet in his arm, son of J. B. McQuinn and Deputy Walter Stevens exchanged 25 shots with the invaders who had forced a kitchen window in the jail. Shot from the gunmen's sawed off guns rattled the prison windows. The quietest escaped toward Toledo in a touring car.

"I should think that a stuttering man would naturally be a good grammarian."

"Indeed, why so?"

"Because he is so familiar with the parts of speech."
